Study Checklist

Every day, you should be spending 5 to 10 minutes per class preparing for tests, in addition to doing homework. Below is a chart to help you identify the strategies you can use for each class.

Study Strategy	1st period	2nd period	3rd period	4th period	5th period	6th period	7th period
Do your homework
Look at previous homework assignments and highlight the info /concepts you don't know
Review notes, number each new concept
Circle key vocabulary terms in notes or reading
Highlight main ideas in notes of readings
Delete or cross out unimportant info in notes
Identify (with a ? mark) point of confusion to clarify with teacher or other student
Compare your notes to another student's or on OneNote; fill in missing info
Identify (with*) info that might be on a test
Predict at least two test questions per day
Summarize notes
Make and use flashcards for vocab terms
Create a note card to use on the test
Check your answers on your homework--- either by going to Tutorial or OneNote
Email questions to your teacher (or check teacher's Collaboration space)
Use websites like Khan or my.hrw.com to practice skills learned in class.
Go to tutorial for help
Show your teacher your predicted test questions
Check synergy for missing work and do it
Check TEAMS for assignments
