Learn a Little More about Our New Superintendent

The Seattle Times published an article this week featuring Ivan Duran, our new superintendent. Click here to read more about his first impressions and his ideas going forward.

Second Chance at Photos

Photo retake day is coming up next Wednesday, 10/4, after school. You are NOT required to purchase photos; however, if you did purchase photos and would like to have them retaken, Wednesday, 10/4 is your opportunity. Send your original photo packet with your student. They must return that before retaking their photo.

If your student did not have a photo taken at Back-to-Business Day in August, one must be taken on retake day. We use these photos for various student identification resources. We need one for every student.

Class Gear Pickups Today

Juniors and seniors should pick up their class sweats after school today. Seniors will be in Mr. Onishi's room, 2107, and juniors in Ms. Northey's room, 2117.

Technology Details Available

If you missed the technology presentations earlier this week, you can access the presentation by clicking here.

Homecoming Ticket Options

The homecoming dance is next week, on Saturday, 10/7, 9:30 to 11:30 PM at Newport. Tickets will be on sale next week during lunch and after school (but not after school on Friday). The ticket price increases daily, so encourage your student to buy tickets early. You also can buy tickets on line by clicking here. Online ticket sales end Wednesday, 10/4.

Bulletin Subscription

After some questions this week, I want to clarify the subscription to the Daily Bulletin. Not all email programs will process an RSS subscription. Outlook does (see attached instructions). Otherwise, there are subscription apps out there as well. Feedly and reddit come to mind.

Each program has its own setup for the feed. The address that you need to subscribe is in the attached Outlook instructions.
