Welcome Back!

I have just a quick note today to welcome everyone back from the holiday. I hope your Thanksgiving was full of family and fun mixed in with your gratitude.

That gratitude could have a powerful impact in your teen's life. Recent research reveals how an internal sense of gratitude helps teens to build stronger social relationships, improve life satisfaction, and enhance well-being. Click here for a University of California, Berkeley article that quickly details how you can guide your teen toward an internal sense of gratitude.

The article details the following four-part approach for building an internal sense of gratitude:

- noticing the things people give us,
- thinking about why they give them to us,
- connecting how we feel to the receiving of gifts, and
- expressing appreciation.

I especially appreciate the closing of the article that reminds us to remember that we raise our children "one moment at a time." As with building resilience, it is the daily guidance and modeling that most influence our teens.

'Hamilton' Tickets Available

Would you or someone you know love to see Hamilton at the Paramount Theater, but it sold out in a matter of minutes? Well, here's your chance to go.

Thanks to a generous donation from Ricardo Frazer, Newport Football will raffle off four tickets to see this amazing Broadway megahit. The team has 100 raffle tickets available at $50 each and will draw two winners on December 5th. Each winner will receive two seats (main floor in the center, row H).

Contact newportfootballfundraising@gmail.com to purchase your raffle ticket now.

Note: the winners cannot resell their tickets and you do not need to be present to win. Good luck!

If you don't win during the first drawing in December, Newport Football will hold a second raffle in January for four more tickets.
