- 8:00-8:50: Period 1 Class
- 9:00-9:50: Period 2 Class
- 10:00-10:50: Period 3 Class
- 11:00-11:50: Period 4 Class

Lunch, 12 to 12:30 p.m.

P.M., Periods 1-4, students will learn in small groups, have individual time with their teacher, or work independently:

- 12:30-1:10: Period 1 Small group, one-on-one support, or independent learning
- 1:15-1:55: Period 2 Small group, one-on-one support, or independent learning
- 2:00-2:40: Period 3 Small group, one-on-one support, or independent learning
- 2:45-3:25: Period 4 Small group, one-on-one support, or independent learning

Tuesday and Friday

A.M., Periods 5-8, students attend class with educators for online instruction:

- 8:00-8:50: Period 5 Class
- 9:00-9:50: Period 6 Class
- 10:00-10:50: Period 7 Class
- 11:00-11:50: Period 8*

* Period 8 – This is twice-weekly time built in for additional learning available for staff, students, and families in order to recognize, honor, and understand the high levels of adjustment necessary when moving to a fully-remote learning environment. This will not be a traditional “class” or prep for educators, but rather a time for their development as professionals and learners alongside students and families.

Lunch, 12 to 12:30 p.m.

P.M., Periods 5-7, students will learn in small groups, have individual time with their teacher, or work independently:

- 12:30-1:10: Period 5 Small group, one-on-one support, or independent learning
- 1:15-1:55: Period 6 Small group, one-on-one support, or independent learning
- 2:00-2:40: Period 7 Small group, one-on-one support, or independent learning

Wednesday

8:00-1:10 Rotating asynchronous learning time (small group, one-on-one support, or independent learning) for students with periods 1-4 one week and periods 5-7 the next week. Schools will also hold virtual assemblies during this time or other school activities.
