

2019 Edwards Awards

The Margaret A. Edwards Award, established in 1988, honors an author, as well as a specific body of his or her work, for significant and lasting contribution to young adult literature. The annual award is administered by YALSA and sponsored by School Library Journal magazine. It recognizes an author's work in helping adolescents become aware of themselves and addressing questions about their role and importance in relationships, society, and in the world. The Edwards award celebrated its 25th anniversary in 2013.

M.T. Anderson wins 2019 Edwards Award for "Feed", "The Astonishing Life of Octavian Nothing, Traitor to the Nation, Volume I: The Pox Party," and "The Astonishing Life of Octavian Nothing, Traitor to the Nation, Volume II: The Kingdom on the Waves"

M.T. Anderson is the recipient of the 2019 Margaret A. Edwards Award honoring his significant and lasting contribution to writing for teens for "Feed;" "The Astonishing Life of Octavian Nothing, Traitor to the Nation, Volume I: The Pox Party;" and "The Astonishing Life of Octavian Nothing, Traitor to the Nation, Volume II: The Kingdom on the Waves" all published by Candlewick Press.

M.T. Anderson is a powerful force in the field of literature for teens. His creativity, wit and intelligence distinguish him and inform the body of his work, which is further notable for its artful variety, whether it be his fiercely satirical "Feed" or his monumental two volume "The Astonishing Life of Octavian Nothing, Traitor to the Nation."
