

King County Library System offers Life After High School online events to provide teens and families the information they need to plan for the future.

Join us in November and December for free college and career prep programs:

Career Campfire: Stories from Working Teens, Wednesday, November 3, 7pm. Presented by the Newport Way Library Teen Volunteer Program

College Options for Students with IEPs/504s, Tuesday, November 9, 6pm. Presented by Presented by Amy Guatelli, MA at Special Education, Special Minds Education Consulting.

Demystifying the College Common App Essay Questions, Saturday, November 20, 3pm. Presented by Poojha Daryanani, Yale Alumna and College Coach.

The Scholarship Market, Tuesday, December 28, 2pm. Presented by Doug Breithaupt, College Planning Network.

All KCLS programs are hosted on Zoom. Teens can register for these and other career and college events at 1.kcls.org/LAHS .

Please share this information with any students you think might be interested.

Follow @kclsteens on Instagram to learn more about library programs and services.